

Name _____

Date _____

Class _____

Teacher _____

Quiz: Entrepreneur Saves Free College Courses

Directions: Select the answer that best completes the sentence.

1) University of California, Berkeley had over 20,000 lectures posted online, until they deleted them because the U.S. government _____.

- A) asked them to charge people to view the videos to keep students paying for college
- B) decided that what was being taught was inappropriate or hurtful
- C) has the authority to control what is on the internet
- D) said the videos violated the Americans with Disability Act

2) Berkeley chose not to add closed captioning to their lecture videos because _____.

- A) the effort would cost millions of dollars
- B) college administrators claimed the government order was unconstitutional
- C) they had no deaf students at their college at that time
- D) President Obama, who directed that, was no longer in office

3) Berkeley did not use computers programs to create closed captions because the _____.

- A) technology had not yet been invented
- B) programs frequently make errors in the captions
- C) the government banned closed captioning programs to save people's jobs
- D) college wanted student to attend in-class lectures instead of watching them on the internet

4) In response to the removal of the lectures, Jeremy Kaufman _____.

- A) created an online petition to have the lectures reposted
- B) donated the money to Berkeley to pay for the closed captioning work
- C) posted the lectures to his site, LBRY
- D) dropped out of Berkeley college

5) Laws passed with good intentions _____.

- A) are always good laws
- B) often have negative, unintended consequences
- C) impact all people in positive ways
- D) are unconstitutional

Entrepreneur Saves Free College Courses – Answer Key:

1. D
2. A
3. B
4. C
5. B