

Name _____

Date _____

Class _____

Teacher _____

Quiz: The Fight Against Food Trucks

Directions: Select the answer that best completes the sentence.

1) Cities create rules to restrict food truck businesses because they _____.

- A) want to protect established brick and mortar restaurants
- B) believe food trucks are not clean and can get people sick
- C) are not allowed to regulate those businesses
- D) don't like the food that food trucks sell

2) Protectionism is the term used to explain how _____.

- A) to protect people from big businesses that try to take advantage of them
- B) people can protect themselves from government tyranny
- C) government protects animals considered to be endangered species
- D) government favors one type of business over another

3) Bottleneckers _____.

- A) use loopholes to establish businesses without paying their fair share of taxes
- B) are people who work in factories that produce bottles
- C) stop new businesses from starting by imposing cumbersome rules
- D) are businesses that exploit people who work for them

4) Occupational licensing is one way _____.

- A) to increase the number of jobs in an occupation
- B) to reverse job losses in communities that are gentrifying
- C) politicians try to reduce the taxes people have to pay
- D) to protect some businesses and workers from competition

5) The lawsuit referred to in the video _____.

- A) was brought by the Restaurant Association to protect brick and mortar restaurants
- B) argues that it is unconstitutional for government to favor one industry over another
- C) claims that food truck operators do not pay their fair share of taxes
- D) challenges the power of the government to allow food truck operators in towns and cities

The Fight Against Food Trucks – Answer Key:

1. A
2. D
3. C
4. D
5. B