

Name _____

Date _____

Class _____

Teacher _____

Quiz: Let People Work – Second Chance Denied

Directions: Select the answer that best completes the sentence

1) Courtney Haveman was denied her cosmetology license because she _____.

- A) failed the required course
- B) was convicted of a DUI eight years earlier
- C) refused to pay for a cosmetology license, claiming it violated her freedom
- D) was terrible at cosmetology

2) According to John Stossel, _____.

- A) job training courses are expensive and a waste of money
- B) occupational licenses are unnecessary because people can learn on-the-job
- C) combined, states have 30,000 licensing requirements
- D) ex-cons do not have good moral character

3) The Institute for Justice, a law firm that takes cases for free, argues that _____.

- A) laws that use “moral character” to prevent people from working are unconstitutional
- B) despite her DUI conviction, Courtney does have good moral character
- C) laws that require workers to have good moral character protect the public
- D) Courtney should be able to work in cosmetology once she pays her fine

4) Lawyer Andrew Ward said that one reason the law is in place is that _____.

- A) politicians are out of touch with reality
- B) established cosmetology businesses advocate for laws that reduce their competition
- C) government workers want bribes to issue licenses
- D) governors in some states don’t understand the complexities of the U. S. Constitution

5) The main idea of this video is that _____.

- A) people’s past actions can come back to haunt them, so they should always behave
- B) no one has a right to judge other people
- C) licenses are appropriate for occupations that can injure customers
- D) occupational licenses can keep people from becoming productive members of society

Let People Work – Second Chance Denied – Answer Key:

1. B
2. C
3. A
4. B
5. D